

Troop 99 memories.....

Hi - my name is Robert Beer, everyone called me Buddy. I was a member of Troop 99 from the summer of 1974 when I turned 11 and I left in July 1976 when my dad PCS'd to Ft. Rucker, AL. I was happy to be part of what I remember as a great troop who had some great outings. My youngest uncle, Pat - who became an Eagle scout and whom I always looked up to, was also a member of the troop.

When the next scouting generation came of age in my family, I became an Asst. Scoutmaster for Troop 265 in Bartlett, TN. We were looking through a box of my old scout stuff and came across a few packs of pictures and a box of patches. Here's a few...

It's in the nature of the military life for families to move often, and we usually lose touch with the friends we've made. Remember that the things we did together, learned and taught each other made us all brothers in scouting, then and since. In that spirit, Mr. John deTreville has begun a website to remind us of the tradition and history we've become a part of....
